The Country Press.

It has often been said that the greatest safeguard to liberty and constitutional government in the United States, is the country press. No other nation is so well supplied with country newspapers.

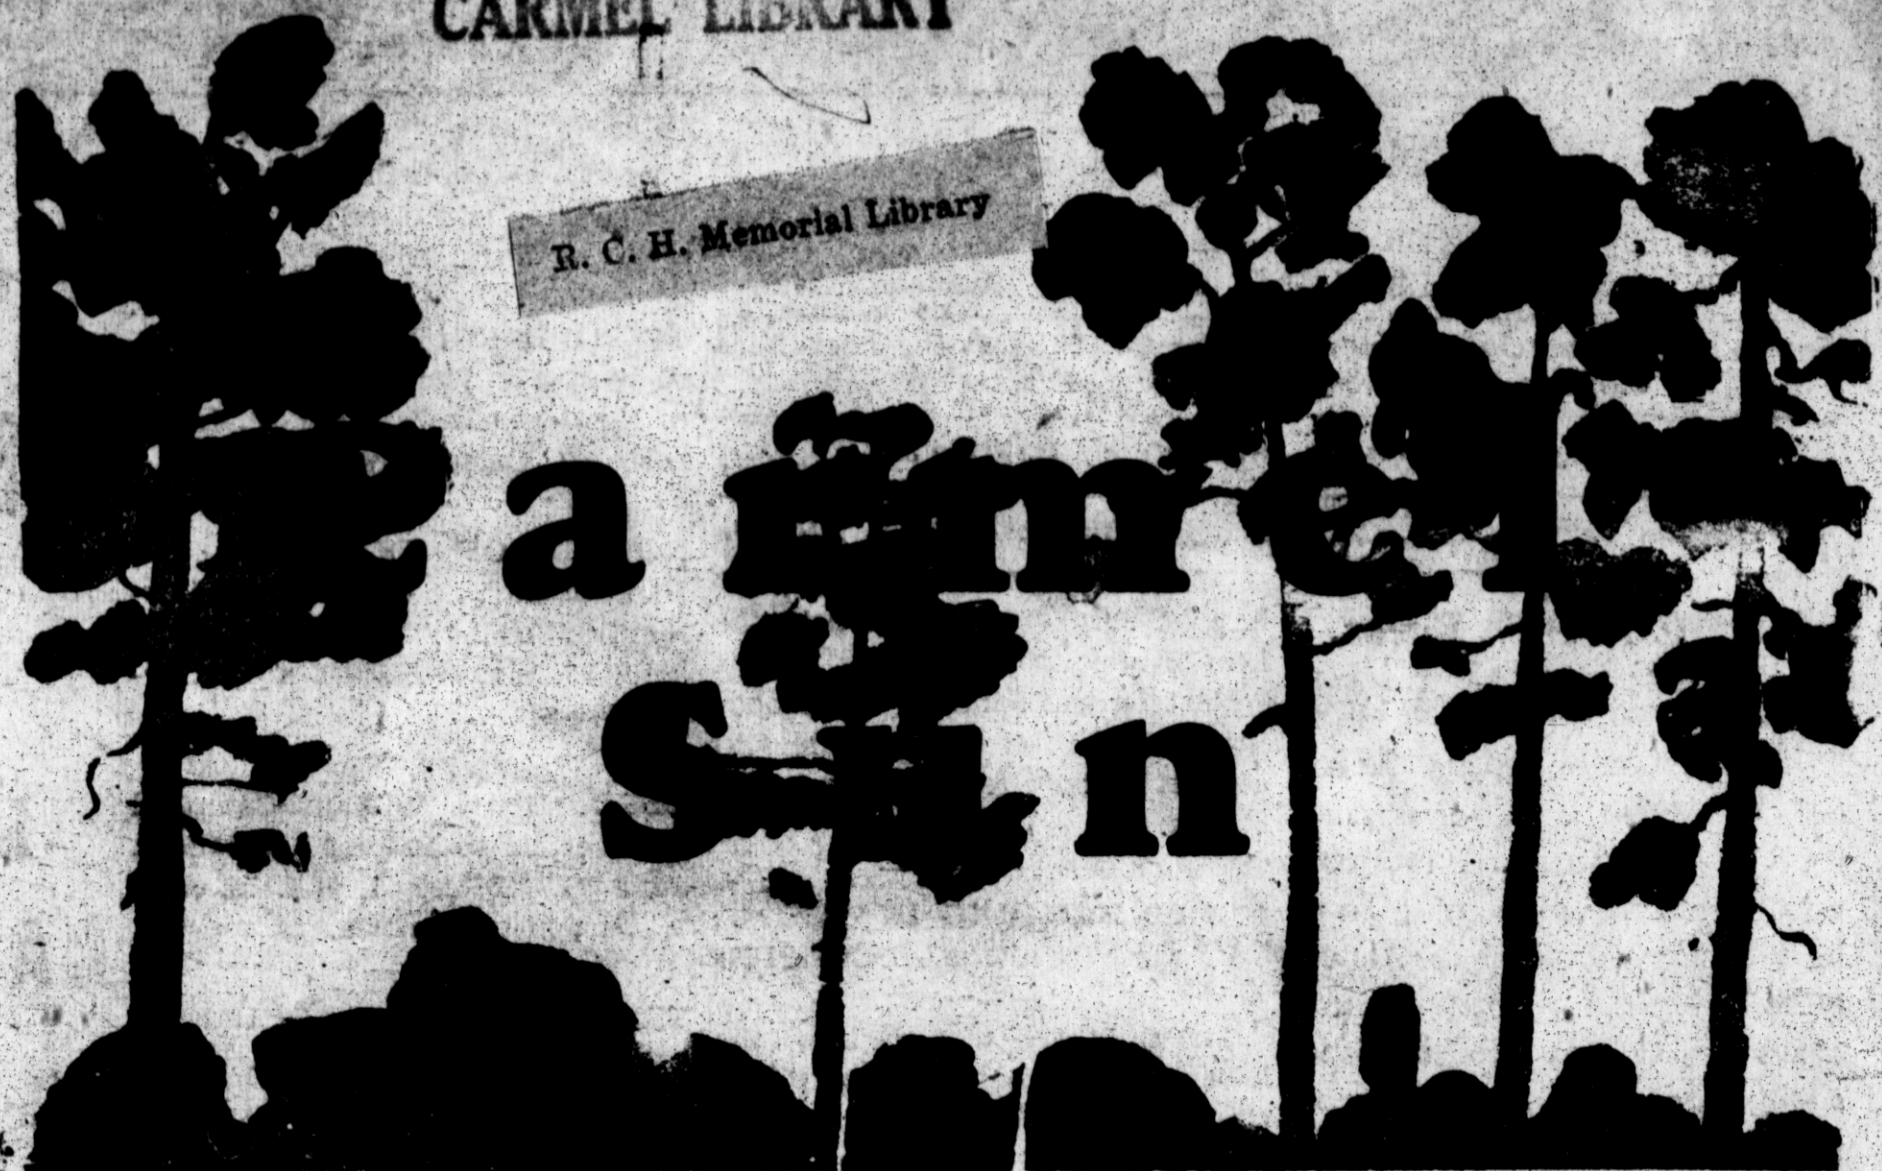

The thousands of publishers of these local papers generally edit and own their own publications. They are independent and express their own opinions. They have a thorough understanding of the principles upon which our government is founded, regardless of their party beliefs. In the great majority they are broadminded enough to put the welfare of the nation, and security for life, liberty and property ahead of any party prejudices.

That is why the country press of the United States is the greatest champion of the rights and liberties of all the people, as set forth in the fundamental law of our land.

"Yellow Jacket" a Community Masterpiece

"Yellow Jacket," staged at Carmel's Forest Theater Friday and Saturday nights, and to be repeated this week-end, with the collaboration of local artists, attracted very large audiences both nights and proved a genuine delight.

An extravaganza teeming with surprises and colorful ensembles, "Yellow Jacket" is proclaimed the most successful production accredited to the Forest Theatre during its 25 years' history. It was produced under the direction of Edward Kuster.

From the moment a flunkey touched off the firecrackers that signal the opening of a Chinese play, till the cast took their final bows, the audience was entranced and delighted. They had seen fairyland realized, a fairyland almost as full of surprises as Alice in Wonderland.

The costumes as gorgeous as any in the Arabian Nights, the actors needed only to come on the stage to charm us—needed only to repeat their lines (often with assistance from the prompter), to make us laugh or shiver with dread.

There were notable bits of eloquent acting and occasional first-night slips. But it would require an encyclopedist to catalogue the performance of the long and brilliant cast.

Byington Ford as Fr. Serra In Mission Festival Play

The Mission Play headquarters has been established by the Serra Festival Committee in the show rooms of the Carmel Garage at the corner of Ocean and San Carlos. Photographs of last year's production of "The Apostle of California" decorate the windows and make the place easy to find.

Information may be obtained there. The telephone number is 47.

Mr. Frederic Burt, who worked closely with George Marion in the play last year, has taken over complete charge of directing and enlisting actors for the play and urges anyone anywhere on the Monterey Peninsula who is interested in helping in any way with the play to report to the headquarters at once.

Mr. Burt has been quietly making arrangements with actors, musicians and dancers and will soon begin general rehearsals.

Already Byington Ford is studying the part of Junipero Serra and Zahram Lee Koepp is training the Indian dancers. She calls for more Indians. Those interested meet at 7:30 tonight at Sunset school for rehearsal.

Even the birds are becoming interested in The Mission Play to be seen at the Carmel Mission at the end of this month. The white pigeons who live at the mission flutter about excitedly all day and last Sunday a great owl perched himself on the crucifix above the altar in the church, but was discovered before morning mass and captured by Harry Downie.

CARMEL LEGION TO INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

New officers of the Carmel Post 512 of the American Legion are to be installed tonight at 8 p. m., with District Commander A. Clark as the installing officer.

The new officers are: Byington Ford, commander; M. J. Peterson, first vice-commander; Corum Jackson, second vice-commander; L. E. Gottfried, adjutant; Gabriel Burvette, finance officer; O. W. Barabson, historian; Melvin C. Dorsett, chaplain; Fred McIndoe, sergeant-at-arms. The executive committee is to consist of Gail Chandler, P. H. Huidgulus, C. G. Lawrence, Ed Ewig, and Done Hale. The public is welcome to attend the installation which is to be held at the American Legion hall.

The delegates who have been selected to attend the convention at Fresno from Aug. 11 to the 14, are: J. J. Regan, L. E. Gottfried, "By" Ford, and C. G. Lawrence.

INTERPRETATIVE DANCING AT SUNSET SCHOOL

Waldeen, dancer, who gives the eighth and final concert of the summer series of music this evening, August 6, in Carmel's Sunset school auditorium, has been called a "born dancer." Waldeen creates her own dances, costumes and with unerring sense, chooses her music.

Approached repeatedly by the "movies," she has steadfastly refused to use her talents in any direction save that of the legitimate dance stage.

Her program shows her in varying moods, from the spiritual, inspired interpreter of Bach, to the witty abandon of the negro "Juba." Quoting from Victor M. Barroso, in "Illustrado": "Waldeen knows how to be a gracious Bisque figure in the Bourree of Bach, turbulent in the Toccata by the same master, extremely elegant in the Spanish nocturne, enchanting in the incomparable Juba."

What About the Future for the Young Person?

By JAS. T. WALTER
(Age 33)

In the San Francisco Examiner of June 15, 1935, B. C. Forbes, one of Hearst's favorite writers, has this to say:

"Too many of the younger generation became possessed by the idea that life was more of a picnic than perpetual planning and plugging... No new deal can supply escalators capable of carrying easy-going, improvident loafers or leaners to the summits of success."

That is quite different from what this same man had to say in the same newspaper of November 28, 1934, when he wrote:

"How many men and youths have you heard exclaim, during recent years, 'Oh, if I could only get a job!' How many idle men, women and youths have poured into your ear the harrowing tragedy of having nothing to do, week after week and month after month? ... Instead of being regarded as a curse, work has come to be regarded as something to be prized. The opportunity to work regularly is generally recognized as a privilege. ... As civilization advances, as labor-saving invention progresses, as machinery multiplies, as mechanical power expands, the amount of manual and other human toll necessary to provide the Nation with food, clothing, shelter, transportation, unquestionably will steadily decrease... One can vision a future when necessitous work will be so regarded that opportunity to perform useful tasks may be cherished, not merely for the remuneration afforded but for the pleasure derived from constructive occupation."

Why the different viewpoint? Why, one month, admit that there is little to be had, and a few months later, with conditions worse, charge the youth of the Nation with being easy-going, improvident loafers and leaners? Could it be because the Townsend Plan was so little known over the Nation in November, 1934? Could it be because the Townsend Plan is generally recognized now as being the only possible hope of solution to our economic dilemma?

Professor Mary May, of Yale, is authority for the statement that in 1934 there were 5,000,000 American girls and boys between the ages of 16 and 25 who were idle

If anyone doubts this, he has only to read the editorial comment of editors from the four corners of the nation today. To illustrate, the editor of the News, published in the typical country town of Ruskin, Neb., in his issue of June 13, in commenting on the growing tax bills and bureaucratic tendencies in government, says:

"We say, look out! When you get more than half the people on the federal, state, county, municipal or other public payrolls, then you are going to have bureaucracy right, both at home and in Washington. As we have said before, it is not just what we are doing now, but the direction in which we are going that counts."

STATE ELECTION TO BE HELD AUGUST 13

Carmel citizens August 13 will be called upon to decide the fate of three issues upon the special election ballot.

The first is the proposition of voting $13,950,000 for extending the state institutions.

Next is the proposition of enlarging our state capitol and the Los Angeles state building.

Next on the ballot is the proposition of whether or not we should authorize short term borrowing of money.

GOULD BUILDING IN CARMEL OCCUPIED

Tenants have moved into the lower floor of the newly completed Gould building in Carmel at San Carlos and Ocean avenues. Mrs. Daisy Bostick and Kenneth Wood, real estate brokers, occupy the corner office.

Drs. R. E. Brownell, P. M. Hunter and E. F. Kehr took the suite of offices on the San Carlos side.

The Carmel five-and-dime store already is established in the Ocean avenue store space of the building. The three upstairs apartments will be ready for occupancy soon. Guy O. Koepf's the architect and M. J. Murphy, Inc., the builder.

What About the Future for the Young Person?

and definitely deteriorating. How many millions since then have been added to this staggering total? How much longer is this condition going to be tolerated? What about the school and college graduates of this year? What are they going to do? What about it, Young America? Are you easy-going, improvident loafers or leaners? How long are you going to listen to these opinions of writers hired by wealth?

Under the present idiotic economic set-up, there seems but two, possibly three, alternatives. One is the Townsend Plan, retiring millions of elderly workers, releasing millions of jobs to the young and furnishing buying power to the masses in order that millions and millions more of our youth may be put to work in an honest-to-goodness capacity, working and creating their own wealth and independence. That road will free us from economic slavery.

The other alternative is that America succumb to European methods of despotisms and dictatorship. Of course, there really is one other possibility and that is that the youth of the Nation will destroy the Nation. Millions and millions of young people, added to other millions of middle-aged jobless, will grow tired of standing on the sidewalks forever, having their life hopes and ambitions fade into eternity, eating their hearts out in poverty and man-made and machine-made idleness! It is just a question of time when one of these three things will happen. God grant that it be the Townsend Plan.

Plan Vital to Young

Show this editorial to a young man or woman. Ask him or her to study this Townsend Plan. There is absolutely nothing to fear. There is not one single argument by Townsend Plan opponents that cannot be blasted into bits by government statistics and truth. In fact, there is a growing scarcity of people who will dare to come out in the open and oppose this Plan. To do so would reveal to the world their gross ignorance and stupidity.

The writer of this is a young man of 33, and would welcome a public debate with Mr. William Randolph Hearst, Mr. Arthur Brisbane or Mr. B. C. Forbes, or any of the Hearst staff. It would be folly for them to accept. No one can argue against invincible facts and practical righteousness.

This is the Life of Riley

..... since he installed GAS HEATING

STICK to your easy chair. Take it easy this winter and live in the carefree comfort of Gas Heating. There is one thing you can be sure of when you heat with Gas—your monthly gas bill is your only expense. Gas is more than merely a fuel—it is an all-inclusive heating service free from many small hidden costs.

Think of these extra things Gas Heating gives. Here is one fuel for the home that burns absolutely silently, is delivered clean and burns clean. How comforting, too, to have the rooms you live in always at the right temperature, with the walls and furnishings free from dust or grime. How worthwhile, too, to be able to fix up your basement into a spick and span playroom or workshop.

This winter lead the life of Riley. Put the task of keeping your fuel supply up and fires going, onto the shoulders of your gas company. You will find that gas equipment in small units is heating homes with modest incomes economically and well. Larger furnaces are heating the larger homes, and automatically maintaining a healthful and comfortable temperature at reasonable cost. Figure closely, count every item of cost for heating as you have it now, and then compare with Gas Heating. You'll decide on gas.

Personal Mention

Miss Jane Hopper motored to Los Angeles where she is remaining with friends for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokley Wilson and young son of San Francisco, have returned to their home after a stay at the Richard Masten's new home in Carmel Valley.

Mrs. Ilya Jadowsky recently returned from a trip to Los Angeles where she visited with her daughters, Mrs. J. Dowd and Miss Willette Allen, formerly of Carmel.

Mrs. Millicent Sears is in San Francisco for a week of shopping and theaters, and expects to return to her Carmel Highlands home Thursday.

Mrs. William Garland of Los Angeles is occupying her Pebble Beach home for the remainder of the summer. Accompanying her is her daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Garland, Jr.

Major H. L. Watson and his young daughter, Elizabeth, are spending a week at Tassajar Hot Springs.

Mrs. Lawrence Dony of Atherton has opened the Pebble Beach home of her father, Mr. Louis Hill, and drives down to spend each week-end on the peninsula.

Mrs. Henry Delafeld Phelps (Muriel Vanderbilt) and her sister, Mrs. Consuela Vanderbilt Smith, will arrive in Carmel this week for a short stay at the Phelps ranch before going on to San Francisco to spend a few days. They will then go east, accompanied by Mr. Phelps, to be at Dudley Place for the remainder of the season.

Teddy and Eric Nelson, after a sojourn of two months with their mother, Mrs. Ann Pfremmer Nelson, are back in Carmel visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pfremmer for the balance of the school vacation period.

In all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., a Lesson-Sermon will be read Sunday, August 11, on the subject, "Spirit."

The Golden Text will be: "He that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting" (Gal. 6: 8). Bible selections will include the following passage from I Cor. 2: 12, 13: "Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual."

Passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included, which read as follows: "The false evidence of material sense contrasts strikingly with the testimony of Spirit. Material sense lifts its voice with the arrogance of reality and says: I am wholly dishonest, and no man knoweth it . . . Spirit, bearing opposite testimony, saith: I am Spirit. Man, whose senses are spiritual, is my likeness . . . I am the substance of all, because I AM THAT I AM" (pp. 252, 253).

Mrs. Dorothy Chapman and her daughter and son, Sue and Bill, have returned after a week's stay in Los Altos, where they spent the time with the children's grandparents.
